A quiet wedding was that of Miss Helen Russell and Mr. Richard Gosling at Central Union church on Monday evening. Directly after the wedding a large reception was given at the Gosling home. The bride was becomingly attired in ivory peau de crepe over satin, and she carried roses and ferns. Many beautiful presents were received, and the happy couple have received many hearty congratulations. Delicious refreshments were served from small tables, the bridal party of ten being together at a circular table. After November the first, Mr. and Mrs. Gosling will be at home at 1934 King street.

Among the guests at the reception were Rev. A. A. Ebersole, Mr. and Mrs. Gosling, Mr. and Mrs. Grieg, Mr. and Mrs. Bull, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Finney, Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, Misses Annie and Evelyn Gosling, Jean Hill, Elizabeth and Nellie Gosling, Margaret Todd, Agnes Monroe, Mona Herd, Jenny Morris; Messrs. Percy Bull, Rider Olson, Harold Nicholson, Fred Gosling, Frank Anderson, Bert Hilton, John Hill, Eugene Judd, George Crozier, Thomas Cullen and Fred Peterson.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Parmelee and Capt. and Mrs. William W. Low were luncheon guests of Major and Mrs. Fred W. Foster at their home at Schofield Barracks on Friday, September 16.

Mrs. Gray and Miss Eva Gray, who have been guests at the Moana, departed by the Sierra on Wednesday for their home in Los Angeles. During their stay in Honolulu, the Grays made many friends who are loth to see them go.

The announcement was made recently in San Mateo, California, of the engagement of Miss Florence Blanche McLean of San Mateo to Mr. Nelson Lansing of Honolulu.

Miss McLean is an attractive girl, not only very pretty, but accomplished, and since her debut a year ago has been most popular among the younger set of San Mateo.

Mr. Lansing is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Lansing, well-known kamaainas of this city.

Miss McLean met her fiance last winter while she and her aunt, Mrs. Phelps, were on their way to the Orient. The wedding will probably take place in the early spring, and society will be glad to welcome such an attractive girl to its midst.

Mrs. T. J. King and Mrs. Charles Foster of Honolulu were luncheon guests of Captain and Mrs. Walcott, Jr., at Schofield Barracks on Thursday. Decorations were most prettily placed, being of pink and white cosmos.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rhodes, formerly of Honolulu, are with Mrs. Rhodes' sister in Hayward, California.

Mrs. Charles F. Morse entertained the Schofield Barracks bridge club on Wednesday.

Another September wedding of interest to Honolulu people is that of Mrs. Marion C. Crook and Mr. S. Molyneux Worthington. Mrs. Crook was one of Honolulu's sweetest singers, and went to San Francisco about two years ago to study under Mr. Worthington, with the ultimate intention of going on the operatic stage. Fate decreed otherwise, however, for Mr. Worthington persuaded her to give up that idea, and several months ago they surprised their friends by the announcement of their engagement.

The wedding took place in San Francisco on September the tenth. The ceremony was performed in the First Presbyterian church at three o'clock in the afternoon, Dr. Guthrie being the officiating minister. Miss Bella Mutch was the maid of honor, and the groom was supported by Mr. Wallace Sablin. After the ceremony a reception was held at the Nottingham apartments on California street, where Mr. and Mrs. Worthington will reside for the present.

Lieut. George B. Rodney, Fifth Cavalry, and Mrs. Rodney, who arrived on the last transport, are houseguests at the home of Major and Mrs. Fred W. Foster at the Leilehua reservation, until their quarters are ready for them at Schofield Barracks.

Mr. Walter G. Smith and his two daughters are occupying the home of Mrs. Charles Rhodes on Leavenworth street in San Francisco.

Capt. Charles F. Morse, Medical Corps, and Mrs. Morse, were hosts at a charming dinner party on Thursday evening, September 15, Mrs. F. J. Koester, Lieutenant Home, Captain Koester and Lieutenant Sheridan, all of the Fifth Cavalry, being their guests.

According to late letters, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Wilder are now motoring through Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wilder are at present in Scotland. They will not return to Honolulu until spring.

A most unique announcement of an engagement was made on Friday afternoon at a tea given at the home of Mrs. Theodore Richards on Kinuau street. During the course of the afternoon several games were played, the first entitled "A Musical Romance," the first number of questions answered by names of songs. Then there were geographical games played in a similar manner. Finally every guest was given a "nut to crack." On being cracked, each nut disclosed a heart, plentifully besprinkled with letters; much merriment attended the combining of these letters, until they were made to announce the engagement of Miss Laura Merrill and Mr. Andrews. Directly following this announcement, Miss Merill was the recipient of many good wishes.

Among the guests were Mrs. McLaughley, Mrs. Breckons, Mrs. Matthew Graham, Mrs. Stanley Livingston, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Chester Hunn, Mrs. Clifton Tracey, Miss Stone, Miss Fairchild, Miss McDonald, Miss Boshier, Miss Ziegler, Miss Cooke, Miss Ruth Shaw, Miss Agnes Alexander and Miss Davison.

Miss Catherine Lamberson the maid of honor. The bride wore white meteor with old lace and veil, and the maid of honor was in pink. After the ceremony a reception was held. For this occasion the parlors were beautifully decorated with white asters and the library and diningroom with pink flowers and vines. The happy couple spent a few days in San Francisco, after which they left for Honolulu where they will make their home.

Ex-Governor Carter and family have arrived in the United States on their way home from a tour around the world. Miss Elizabeth Carter will remain at school in Baltimore, but the rest of the family are expected back in Hawaii some time in January.

Mrs. G. Coulter, who has been in California for several months taking part in the tennis tournaments, was a returning passenger on the Siberia.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray of Los Angeles entertained at luncheon last Saturday at the Moana. After a dainty repast the party enjoyed a swim.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bond will sail for Honolulu shortly, after having spent their honeymoon on the Atlantic Coast. Mrs. Bond was formerly Miss Rowena Elston, one of the popular girls of Berkeley. Mr. Bond is a well-known business man of this city.

Professor and Mrs. Andrews of the College of Hawaii have taken Miss Kelly's cottage on College Hills for the winter.

Paul Withington has accepted the position of graduate athletic manager of Harvard University. He expects to sail the first part of October to take up his duties there.

General and Mrs. John McLellan and daughter are at present at Paso Robles, and will remain there during the army maneuvers at Atascadero.

Miss Alice Cooper returned yesterday morning from a ten days' trip to the volcano.

Governor and Mrs. Frear and little daughter spent Friday and Saturday at Leilehua.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kinney and son enjoyed several weeks in Scotland before touring the continent.

Mrs. Charles C. Walcott, Jr., wife of Captain Walcott, Jr., Fifth Cavalry, was a houseguest in Honolulu on Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of Capt. and Mrs. Frank F. Roberts, Marine Corps.

Mr. Lewton-Brain, once connected with the planters' association here, has accepted a similar position in the Malay Peninsula. His wife and child accompany him.

Canon Simpson has been prevailed upon to accept the charge of a parish in Hood River, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Devereux, who have been visiting in Honolulu for some time, sailed on the Mauna Kea on Tuesday for their home in Hawaii, as did also Charles Gay and wife.

Among the returning passengers on the Siberia were Chief Justice Hartwell and his daughter, Miss Hartwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Afong are due to arrive from the mainland on October seventh.

Princess Kawananakoa has given up her home on Presidio avenue, in San Francisco, and taken apartments at the Palace Hotel for the winter.

The Case Deerings and Captain and Mrs. Falls have returned from Hanalei, after enjoying beach life for a week.

Mrs. C. M. Cooke and daughter, Miss Alice Cooke, were home returning passengers on the Siberia last Monday.

The many friends of Mrs. Harold Dillingham are glad to welcome her back, after some time spent in San Francisco with relatives.

J. D. Tucker left on the Sierra to attend the grand lodge in San Francisco, at which he will represent the Masonic lodges of Hawaii.

Count and Countess K. J. Zedwitz are here for a short stay. At present they are at the Volcano House.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Baldwin, who arrived on the Siberia, left Tuesday for their home on another island.

From last accounts, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Waterhouse were in New York. They were to be there only a few days before sailing for England.

Mrs. George Fairchild and children of Kama are still in Germany.

The engagement of Miss Laura A. Merrill to Carl B. Andrews was announced to a few friends at an informal tea at the home of Mrs. Theodore Richards, on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Green and Miss Green have moved from Kinuau street to 744 Laniala street.

Mrs. Josephine H. Taplin, of Boston, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. M. Nowell, in Manoa, has decided to make her home here permanently, having purchased the Mohr residence on Prospect street.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Blackman entertained a number of their friends at their picturesque bungalow at Kahala, last Sunday. After a morning spent in bathing and boating the party sat down to a delightful luncheon. Among those present were Mr. and Miss Singler, Mr. B. Sinclair, W. C. Parke, Mrs. Walbridge, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Galt, Miss Nina Adams, Miss D. Gras, Miss Beatrice Holdsworth.

CAVALRY ON THE MARCH.
The Third Squadron of the Fifth Cavalry, under command of Major Foster, left the cantonment on Monday morning for a practice march of three days, and returned to the post last Wednesday.

Mr. Harry Wilder and bride arrived last week on the Siberia. Mrs. Wilder, nee Lamberson, was a popular society girl of Portland. The wedding to which only relatives and intimate friends were asked, took place on Wednesday, September the seventh. Mr. Raymond Lamberson was best man, and
